

Convicted in U. S. Court of Plot to Aid Russians

FRANKFORT, Germany, Nov. 10 (P)—Two Germans were convicted today of having conspired to spy for the Soviet Union.

They were sentenced by a United States district court to two years in prison.

The court convicted Hermann Cossman, 29-year-old Wiesbaden lumber dealer, of having transmitted to Soviet agents information "which might be dangerous to the security of allied forces."

Dr. Guenther Scholz, 40-year-old Wiesbaden chemist, was convicted of having given Cossman maps of a United States Army ordnance depot he had obtained while working for the United States High Commissioners' office in Germany.

They were convicted largely on the testimony of Hildegard Kuehn, a resident of Eastern Germany, who testified that she had
